AFFILIATE QUALIFICATIONS & STANDARDS FOR PARTICIPATION IN CDI

An Affiliate is defined as a manufacturer, distributor or supplier of products and services relating directly to career service providers and/or job seekers, domestically and/or internationally.

All Affiliate applications must be approved by the Board of Directors.

The Affiliate Company's goals must be consistent with CDI in adhering to standards of professionalism and integrity as defined by CDI. Overall, Affiliate Members should represent the entire spectrum of business servicing the career services industry and should include representation by minority firms.

Affiliate Members shall strive to provide products or services that improve the quality and efficiency of the career service provider and/or job seeker, shall undertake to work with and through CDI to accomplish these ends and shall conduct their CDI activities within the guidelines established by CDI.

Affiliate members may participate on committees. Affiliate Members will support, with resources and participation, the activities and events of CDI.

Affiliate Memberships are on an annual basis with renewal every twelve months from initial date of membership. Affiliates not renewing their membership within 30 days following the renewal date will be dropped from membership and removed from the Service Provider database.

Direct selling during CDI functions by Affiliate Members is prohibited unless prior approval has been obtained such as in a conference exhibitor role. (See http://www.careerdirectors.com/conv_exhibit.htm).

Direct selling through CDI chat, member e-list groups, blogs, and WIKIs is prohibited.

Affiliate Members are granted advertising and promotional opportunities with CDI, which are detailed at <http://www.careerdirectors.com/sp.htm>. No advertising or promotions performed by CDI on the behalf of the Affiliate Member constitute an endorsement by CDI for the Affiliate Member.

Affiliate Membership does not imply any exclusivity of service to CDI members. Similar or same products or services from other companies or individuals may or may not be included as Affiliate Members in this service provider program in the future. There is no implied or stated non-compete agreement or understanding that is included with Affiliate Membership.

Dues are non-refundable and non-transferable except when Affiliate Membership is denied by CDI.

I/We have read this application and understand the terms and conditions printed therein and hereby request Affiliate Membership in CDI.

I/We acknowledge that neither the application nor the acceptance of membership creates a contract of any kind between CDI and my/our company.

I/We understand that acceptance of Affiliate membership grants all CDI membership and advertising rights as described at <http://www.careerdirectors.com/sp.htm>.

I/We also acknowledge that failure to adhere to the tenants of Affiliate Membership can result in termination of membership.
